

1. Thompson West End Park and Artesian Well
8th Avenue West

The Sprague Well was drilled to 119 feet in 1903. It flows at approximately 54 gallons per minute and provides pure artesian water.

1. Lakeshore Walking Trail
8th Avenue West

Linking two City parks, the lakeshore trail runs 1.5 miles along Lake Superior's shore. The trail is part of the Wisconsin Maritime Trail System, and interpretive signs along the trail tell the story of Washburn's logging history.

2. Washburn City Hall - 1893; 1920
119 Washington Avenue

The 1893 brick section of City Hall was originally Washburn's first library. The brownstone addition, added in the 1930's was salvaged from the old Northern State Bank building.

2.

3. Washburn free Public Library 1904
307 Washington Avenue

The Classical Revival brownstone library is one of many libraries built with funding from Andrew Carnegie. It is listed on the National Register of Historic Places in America.

3.

4. St. Louis Church 1902
217 West 7th Street

This brownstone building was originally intended to be a tall, typical Gothic Revival church design. But lack of funds due to the decline in the lumber industry made the completion of this design impossible.

4.

5. Bayfield County Courthouse 1896
117 East 5th Street

The grand portico and domed cupola on the brownstone courthouse make this a particularly handsome building. When completed in 1896, for a cost of $31,000, each office had its own telephone! It is listed on the National Register of Historic Places in America.

5.

9. Bayfield County Bank and Racket Shop 1889
16 East Bayfield Street

These side-by-side brownstone buildings were constructed of stone quarried at Houghton Point. The County Bank was on one side of the building, while the Racket Shop that sold "notions" and general merchandise occupied the other side. The building now houses Washburn Family Dentistry.

7. DuPont YMCA 1918
3 East Bayfield Street

The Dutch Colonial building served as the social center of Washburn from 1918 to 2008. The community enjoyed bowling, dances and events. The Harlem Globetrotters even played a professional team from Milwaukee at the "Club" in the 1930's.

6. Washburn Historical Museum & Cultural Center 1890
1 East Bayfield Street

The impressive brownstone Romanesque Revival building was designed by architects Conover & Porter of Ashland. It is listed on the National Register of Historic Places in America. Be sure to visit the museum on the second floor.

6.

10. DuPont Historic District

Four blocks of East 3rd Street, between Central Avenue and East 4th Avenue, have a concentration of homes from the 1880's through the 1930's. Many of the homes were constructed by DuPont for workers at the Barksdale Dynamite Factory, the largest TNT producer in America in the 1920's.

8. Meehan Merchantile Company 1888
2 East Bayfield Street

This large brownstone "union block" building originally housed a pharmacy, general merchandise store and a newspaper. The second floor also housed the Chequamegon Lodge of the International Order of Odd Fellows. The building now houses Chequamegon Books and Coffee.

11. Memorial Park
Park Road

Memorial Park is dedicated to the soldiers and sailors of Washburn.